discussion of:

Girl of My Dreams
by Peter Davis

WEDNESDAY • NOVEMBER 18 • 7:00 PM

Join us for a reading and discussion with Peter Davis for his novel, Girl of My Dreams. A sweeping novel of the 1930s that captures the essence of a golden, lurid era when Hollywood became the fantasy capital of the world Girl of My Dreams follows a wide-eyed young screenwriter in the 1930s when Hollywood, the Depression, and the Communist Party intersected powerfully in the American psyche. From the glamorous and mysterious star Palmyra Millevoix to the ruthless studio mogul Mossy Zangwill, protagonist Owen Jant struggles to navigate a world that is as seductive as it is toxic. Filled with scandal, romance, murder, riots, and celebrities of the day, Girl of My Dreams shines a spotlight on an American moment in all its magic and malice, glory and greed.

Peter Davis grew up in Hollywood, the son of screenwriters. He is the author of three non-fiction books that have been praised by Graham Greene, Robert Stone and William Styron. Davis covered the war in Iraq for The Nation magazine and has written articles for Esquire, The New York Times Magazine, and Vanity Fair. He is an award-winning documentary filmmaker who received an Academy Award for Hearts and Minds, his film about the war in Vietnam.
