

Join us for a screening & discussion of

Paris la métisse

with filmmaker Mariette Monpierre
(film in French with English subtitles, discussion in English)

Friday, February 15,

(rescheduled from Feb. 8)

7:30 PM

Seelye 201,
Smith College

Guadeloupean filmmaker and Smith alumna Mariette Monpierre '85 presents Paris la métisse, a film made in collaboration with 14 other filmmakers about Parisians with diverse origins and backgrounds who live, work, and deal with the daily challenges presented by cultural and religious differences in the City of Light.

Co-sponsored by the Lecture Committee, French Studies, the Global Studies Center, Afro-American Studies, Film Studies, the Five College French Seminar, and various UMass departments.

Free and open to the public.

