

“Lesbian Reverie: Film History as Mise-en-Scene of Desire”

5:00pm Monday
7 March 2016

Integrative Learning Center
“The Hub” (3rd floor)

Department of Communication
UMass Amherst

a talk by Patricia White

PATRICIA WHITE

is Eugene Lang Research Professor, Department of Film and Media
Studies, Swarthmore College.

For the past two decades, Patricia White has been actively involved in independent feminist and LGBTQ media distribution and exhibition through service with nonprofits, film festivals, and cultural journals including the feminist film organization Women Make Movies, the feminist film journal Camera Obscura, and the New York International Festival of Lesbian and Gay Film.

She is the author of Women's Cinema, World Cinema (Duke UP, 2015), Uninvited: Classical Hollywood Cinema and Lesbian Representability (Indiana UP, 1999), and Figures of Resistance: Essays in Feminist Theory (Illinois UP, 2007).